Wheat Off a Shade in Chicago Markets

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Wheat fell slightly after a high opening, followed by heavy buying, which free selling did not seem to diminish. Sales fell off later, September dropping one point below opening at $1.54 1-2; December down 5-8 at $1.58 3-8, and May down 5-8 at $1.56 1-4.

Corn held steady, due to scattered buying on a higher opening. September was down half at 88; December down 3-8 at 73 5-8, and May down half at 76 7-8.

Oats had only a fair demand, September being down 3-8 at 46 5-8; December quarter at 49 1-4, and May down half at 52 1-8.

Provisions remained steady.

SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds (Francis Adams) whose wedding was an event of Saturday, September the sixteenth in Silverton, have arrived in Salem and are at home to their host of friends in the Court Apartments.

Mrs. Thomas B. Kay will have as her guest for the fair this week, Miss Lois Ladd of Portland.

Mrs. Anthony Klein has as her guests her daughters, Mrs. Clyde Phillips and Mrs. Norman Courtney of Portland, who arrived Saturday to visit during the state fair.

Miss Nell Sykes will entertain as her guests for the fair, Miss Pearl White of McMinnville and Miss Barbara Moore of Corvallis. The girls are both attending school at the O. A. C. and will arrive the latter part of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank F. Snedecor (Lena Breyman) who arrived Sunday from Birmingham, Alabama, are being joyously welcomed by their many friends. The Snedecors are the guests of Mrs. Snedecor's mother, Mrs. Eugene Breyman, and will visit here indefinitely. Mrs. Snedecor is very popular in Salem society and her stay in this city will be marked by numerous delightful attentions.

An enthusiastic meeting was held by the Daughters of the American Revolution at their first gathering of the season on Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. S. C. Dyer.

Mrs. Dyer's sister, Mrs. N. H. Looney of Jefferson, was the assistant hostess. After the business session an interesting programme was given including recitations by Mrs. J. Montclair Brown and Miss Griffin, and a talk by Mrs. C. C. Clark, who gave an account of her recent trip to New York. The chapter will center its year's work on the American citizenship education.

Refreshments closed the meeting, the second of which will be late in October at the residence of Mrs. Homer H. Smith.

The club members present at the meeting were Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Miss Edith Benedict, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. N. H. Looney of Jefferson, Mrs. Henry B. Thielson, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. J. G. Heltzel, Miss Griffin, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. J. W. Woodruff, Miss Ellen Thielson, Mrs. C. A. Holmstrom, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. Sarah Brown Savage, Mrs. D. I. Howard, Mrs. C. O. Wilson and Mrs. Griffin.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Knighton are rejoicing over the fact that they have returned to Portland to make their home after an absence of five years in Salem, where Mr. Knighton has been engaged as state architect. They are now domiciled in apartments at the Hotel de Ville. Mr. and Mrs. Knighton have a host of friends in this city and again will enter into the social activities of the approaching season.—Sunday Oregonian.

Mrs. Mary Hamilton of Fossil, Oregon, arrived in Salem Saturday evening for a short visit and is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, General and Mrs. W. H. Byars.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Savage of Silverton will be among the visitors attending the fair this week and will be the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Merline Harding.

Miss Helen Krauss of Portland arrived today to attend the state fair, and will be the guest of friends and relatives. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krauss, will be in Salem later in the week and will visit the Joseph H. Alberts and John C. Griffiths.

Mrs. Hershel Powers and Mrs. Harry Weidmer returned Friday from Portland, where they were the guests of Mrs. Powers' grandmother, Mrs. Eunice Roberts, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto L. Ragan (Lenna Cavanaugh) of Portland, returned to Salem Sunday and are visiting Mrs. Ragan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cavanaugh. Other guests at the Cavanaugh home are Mrs. E. R. Wiggins and children, Lawrence and Fielda, and Mrs. M. A. Woare, also of Portland.

Miss Lucille Belle, who has been enjoying an outing at Newport, returned home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weller have as their house guests for the week, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bickford and daughter, Marian, and Mrs. S. E. Hullat of Portland.

That the executive affairs of Willamette sophomore class will be well directed during this semester was shown in the meeting of Chester Womack as president of the class Friday afternoon. He will be assisted by Maud Maclean, vice president; Helen Wood, secretary; Foster Friday, treasurer, and Robert Tacker, sergeant at arms. Many social affairs are contemplated by members of the class this year, including a formal reception to the freshmen at an early date. It is expected that the new president will immediately appoint the social committee which will have charge of all social affairs of the class for the first semester.

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding will have visiting her during the week, her mother, Mrs. S. Skeefe of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Frizzell have returned from an enjoyable sojourn at Newport.

Many Portland folk will motor to Salem tomorrow and every day this week to attend the state fair, a large feature of which will be the horse show each night, the entries to include many of Portland's well known blue ribbon winners. There also will be exhibitors from Seattle, Spokane and California, and this particular part of the interesting fair will call forth a fashionable and large following.

Some of the prominent Salem motorists have planned various kinds of so-

Prices Advance On
2,000,000 Share Day

New York, Sept. 25.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today says:

In the sixteenth consecutive billion share day and the heaviest in many years with total sales in excess of two million shares, prices for the greater prominent issued advanced into new high ground for the current movement with absolute high points for United States Steel common, most of the coppers, Central Leather and some of the specialties. Demand on the present public to participate in the bull speculation was enormous. Buying by professional Wall Street was heavy, while the cordial approval and active support of the expanding movement by the substantial financial interests were in evidence. Advances of from one to four points were reported, but as a rule, marked improvement was confined to the steel and copper shares, the railway equipment and motor issues and such stocks as Central Leather for instance, which was in demand for commission houses with the movement in it being helped by reports by a contest for the control of the property. In the later dealings, however, the rails came into greater prominence, especially Reading, Union Pacific and Erie.

An added impulse for buying steel common was found in street estimates that the net earnings of the big steel corporation for the current quarter would approximate $98,000,000. In the late trading the general market was reactionary with steel selling under its closing Saturday.

Watermelon Story
Has Two Sequels

A watermelon story in chapters reaching North and South Commercial street and the city police station, with a sequel in prospect, came to light this morning when Howard Damon, the grocer, was fined $5 for violating the ordinance pertaining to the placing of obstructions in the street.

It seems that Damon ordered a load of melons from the Salem Fruit company, which melons he was not satisfied with and ordered the company to take back. The company did not do this, and Damon loaded the fruit into a wagon and took it back himself. The company refused to accept the fruit, Damon piled it in the street in front of the company's place of business. Hence he was arrested.

After paying his fine, Damon swore out a warrant charging the company with infraction of the same ordinance, and this warrant is now in process of serving.

Ed Hornbeck, thoroughly drunk and with two bottles in his pockets, was taken in by the local police this afternoon.
